

Ken Pomeranz has more than 30 years of experience in law enforcement serving the San Diego Police Dept., the Las Vegas Police Dept., Adams County Sheriff's Office (Colorado), Lakewood Police Dept. (Colorado) and currently the Phoenix Police Dept. He is a highly decorated officer (retired) who was shot in the line of duty.

Ken earned his master's degree in forensic science and is certified both as a Senior Crime Scene Analyst and as a Forensic Photographer through the International Association for Identification. He is a past president of the Rocky Mountain Division of the IAI (RMDIAI) and is currently a vice-president for the Arizona Identification Council.

Ken has taught forensics and criminal justice courses to police departments throughout the states of Colorado, Nevada, California and Arizona. He is currently a Crime Scene Response Supervisor with the Phoenix Police Dept. and teaches at universities and colleges as an adjunct faculty member.