

Mandi Beasinger has over 20 years of law enforcement experience with a background in recruiting, academy preparation and instruction, field training, crisis management and emergency management. As an officer with the Lansing (MI) Police Department she served as a field training officer, a rescue diver on the Capitol Area Dive Team, a crisis negotiator, a member of the Violent Crime Initiative Team and an undercover narcotics officer.

As a Sergeant, Mandi served as a patrol supervisor, a coordinator for the field training program, and is the agency coordinator for the Mid-Michigan Police Academy. Currently, Mandi is the lead recruiting and hiring officer for her department. She is also the Assistant Team Commander for the crisis negotiators on the tactical team.

Mandi has taught as an adjunct professor with the Mid-Michigan Police Academy for over ten years with a focus on report writing and domestic violence. She is also involved in the development of training scenarios for recruits and officers in many areas of policework.

Mandi has a Bachelor of Sciences in Criminal Justice from Ferris State University and a Master of Arts in Emergency Management from American Military University. She is certified by the State of Michigan as a Professional Emergency Manager.

Mandi is an active member of the Fraternal Order of Police and serves as the State Sergeant-At-Arms on the Executive Board. She is a part of several committees and fundraising events that support the Special Olympics and the Law Enforcement Torch Run.
