

Donovan Heavener

Donovan Heavener is a retired police officer from the Federal Way Police Department in the State of Washington.

Donovan Heavener started his law enforcement career with the Brown County Sheriff's Department and lateralled to the Federal Way Police Department in 1996 when they created a new police department.

During his career, Donovan Heavener served in patrol, the traffic unit, as a School Resource Officer, Sergeant and trained numerous student officers as a Field Training Officer. Donovan Heavener was also assigned to the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission as a TAC Officer for the Basic Law Enforcement Academy.

Donovan Heavener obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and is trained as a Polygraph Examiner through the Marston Polygraph Academy.

Donovan Heavener can be reached at (920)251-5704 or dheavener29@gmail.com.