

Susan Norris

Susan Norris is the Founder of Rescuing Hope and has been in the fight against sex trafficking since early 2010. Her passion is to enlighten the public about sex trafficking in America, educate potential victims and first responders, and empower advocates and survivors.

Susan is a sought-after content expert, a member of the Georgia State Human Trafficking Task Force, a Credentialed Victim's Advocate, a National Organization for Victim Assistance trainer, a Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) certified instructor, and was appointed to the Georgians for Refuge, Action, Compassion, and Education (GRACE) Commission by First Lady of Georgia, Marty Kemp.

She is a Subject Matter Expert (SME) for the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC).

Susan was recognized by Mercedes Benz for the Greatness Lives Here program in 2020, and by the Marquis Who's Who in 2023. She holds a Master's of Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, is the author of the book, "Rescuing Hope, a Story of Sex Trafficking in America," and is a CLASS-certified speaker.
