

Jeffrey Vanhook

Jeffrey Vanhook is an Operations Lieutenant with the Larimer County Sheriff's Office, Fort Collins, Colorado. He has been employed with LCSO since 1992. During his career he has held many different positions; detention Deputy, patrol deputy, narcotics, criminal investigations, patrol corporal and sergeant, training sergeant and patrol lieutenant (Watch Commander). Jeff currently serves as the operations administrator overseeing the SRO, Co-Responder, Civil Division and the firearms program.

Jeff has been a Field Training Officer (FTO) for the agency since 1998 and was the agency Field Training Program (FTP) Coordinator for 12 years.

Jeff is currently the Field Training Program Administrator. Jeff serves on the National Association of Field Training Officers (NAFTO) as the Vice-President, Instructor Recruitment/Development Manager and a trainer. Jeff has taught basic FTO school, advanced FTO school and managing the FTO unit. Jeff has been a national trainer since 2014 instructing classes across the United States. Jeff is a Subject Matter Expert (SME) trainer in the Emergency Vehicle Operation Course (EVOC) program. Jeff has previously served on Colorado Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Curriculum Committee and Colorado POST training academy committee. Jeff is a Crisis Intervention Team (C.I.T.) member and also serves as a member of the Board of Directors for Summitstone Health Partners, which is the leading behavior health provider for Larimer County.