

Dan Greene has dedicated over 28 years to law enforcement in Arizona, beginning as an officer in 1996. In 1998, he was selected as a Field Training Officer (FTO), a role that shaped his passion for mentoring and training. Over his career, Dan has trained over 250 new officers and over 20 newly promoted supervisors. As a defensive tactics instructor, Dan has provided advanced use-of-force training to hundreds of agencies while teaching at the Arizona Law Enforcement Academy and the Chandler Police Department, where he currently serves as the lead Use of Force Instructor and Advanced Training Unit Supervisor.

Dan is an IADLEST National Certified Instructor and Subject Matter Expert in General Instruction, he holds multiple certifications to include ICAT, ethics, and CIT

Currently the Executive Director of the National Association of Field Training Officers, Dan assists agencies nationwide in developing standardized FTO guidelines and advanced training curricula. Dan has collaborated with research organizations to pioneer studies, producing some of the first research dedicated to enhancing field training practices and officer development nationwide.

Recognized for his contributions, Dan received the ILEETA Instructor of the Year Award in 2017. His expertise training, leadership, and matters of officer safety has impacted agencies across the country. Dan's career reflects his dedication to professional growth, officer wellness, and advancing the field of law enforcement training.