

Randy Hahn is a retired law enforcement officer with over 34 years of combined law enforcement and security experience. During this time period, he has gained expertise in numerous law enforcement and security-related training topics, critical incident response and management, critical infrastructure protection, interagency operations and training, investigations, and high-risk operations in remote environments. His instructor portfolio includes Police K-9, SWAT, chemical munitions/less lethal/NFDDs, handgun, shotgun, patrol rifle, submachine gun, Pepper Ball, Pepper Spray, Taser, Defensive Tactics, Active Shooter, various L.E. and security-related soft skills, De-Escalation, and De-Escalation instructor trainer.