

Steven Kramer

Law Enforcement Instructor with Washtenaw Community College Police Academy and Green Oak Township Police Department.

Steven is a dedicated law enforcement professional with 26 years of experience in policing and specialized training instruction. Currently serving as a Chief with the Green Oak Township Police Department, Steven has extensive expertise in Subject Control, Firearms, Mechanics of Arrest, Duty to Intervene, SWAT Tactics, De-escalation, Traffic Stops techniques, and Scenarios.

Throughout his career, Steven has been committed to enhancing officer safety, public service, and professional development. As a certified instructor he has trained countless officers and recruits, ensuring they are equipped with the knowledge and skills needed to serve their communities effectively.

Beyond the classroom, Steven has served in various capacities, including a SWAT Team Member, Evidence Technician, Field Training Officer, Field Training Commander and Patrol Sergeant, bringing real-world experience to his instruction. Passionate about mentorship and continuous learning, Steven remains at the forefront of modern law enforcement training, integrating the latest techniques and best practices to uphold the highest standards of policing.