

Eric Sands

Eric Sands serves as a Police Officer and Training Coordinator for the Markle Indiana, Police Department for the last 17 years. Prior to that, he worked worked for the Roanoke, Indiana, Police Department as the Chief of Police for 13 years. He is a Certified Medico-legal Death Investigator through the State of Indiana, for the Huntington County, Indiana, Coroner's Office.

For the past 17 years, Eric also works for Walden Security as the Walden as the Contract Manager for the 7th Judicial Circuit, overseeing the operations of the Court Security Program. Walden Security Federal Service Division is contracted by the US Marshal Service to provide court security at all Federal Courthouses.

Eric is a Certified Generalist Instructor and Firearms Instructor through the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy. He is certified in Handgun, Shotgun, Patrol Rifle, and Less Lethal Munitions.

Eric has a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice, a Bachelor's Degree in Management, and an Associates Degree in Criminal Justice.

Eric has over 33 years of law enforcement and leadership experience. He served as that time as a patrol officer up to and becoming a police chief. He has approximately 4,000 total hours of training - instruction in law enforcement – emergency services since 1991.

Contact Information:

email: esands.in@gmail.com

telephone: 260.715.9227