

Dan Grossi

Dan Grossi is a retired Director of Public Safety for Miami-Dade College, where he served as the Chief of Public Safety, Director of Emergency Management, and lead of the campus Threat Assessment Team. He has over 25 years of experience in the criminal justice field, including roles as a sworn law enforcement officer, non-sworn administrator, and college instructor/Criminal Justice Program Chair.

Dan worked for the Lee County Sheriff's Office (Florida), where he served as a corrections deputy, road patrol deputy, FTO, Detective, K-9 handler, and Sergeant. He was also a member of the Mobile Field Force Team and the Hostage Negotiations Team. He also served as the Field Operations Manager for Collier County Domestic Animal Services, where he supervised a team of Animal Control Officers to investigate instances of abuse, neglect, hoarding, and illegal animal fighting.

As a curriculum developer and instructor for the North Carolina Department of Justice - Justice Academy, Dan develops and delivers courses in Officer Survival, Use of Force, and De-Escalation.

Dan is certified as a North Carolina General Instructor, SCAT/Compliance and Control Tactics Instructor, Rapid Deployment Instructor, and Simunitions Instructor. He is a Certified Master Instructor for the National De-escalation Training Center (NDTC) and a certified instructor for the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF).

Dan is a Certified Force Analyst through Force Science, a Nationally Certified Instructor through the International Association of Directors of Law Enforcement Standards and Training (IADLEST), and a member of the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association (ILEETA).