

Chief John Bouthillette (Retired)

148 Gaisler Road, Blairstown, NJ 07825

jbouthillette@iir.com – (850) 491-0388

---

Career Overview

Chief John Bouthillette is a distinguished law enforcement professional with a comprehensive 39-year career characterized by exceptional leadership, extensive training expertise, and a profound commitment to officer safety and community engagement. Throughout his distinguished career, he has developed productive partnerships with local, state, and federal agencies, establishing himself as a respected subject matter expert in critical areas of law enforcement.

Current Professional Roles

As a Deputy Director at the Institute for Intergovernmental Research's Center for Law Enforcement Safety and Wellness, Chief Bouthillette oversees multiple critical training and technical assistance programs for the Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance. His current portfolio includes:

- VALOR Officer Safety and Wellness Training
  - Executive Leadership Workshop
  - Mid-Level Leadership Workshop
  - VALOR Survive and Thrive Training Classes
  - VALOR Survive and Thrive Train-the-trainer Class
- National Suicide Awareness for Law Enforcement Officers (SAFLEO) Training Program
  - SAFLEO Executive Forum
  - SAFLEO Leadership and Supervision Training Class
  - SAFLEO Line Officer Training Class
  - SAFLEO Line Officer Train-the-trainer Class
- VALOR Safer Together Training Program
  - Safer Together Executive Briefing
  - Safer Together Command Level Class
  - Safer Together Line Officer Class

Chief Bouthillette is also a member of the Advisory Board of the University of Virginia's Center for Public Safety and Justice (CPSJ). Founded in 1819 by Thomas Jefferson, the University of Virginia has long stood as a beacon of academic excellence and leadership, grounded in the principles of intellectual inquiry, service, and innovation. The School of Continuing and Professional Studies (SCPS), as part of this esteemed institution, embodies a commitment to lifelong learning and professional development, empowering leaders in diverse fields to address contemporary challenges with integrity and innovation.

The Center for Public Safety and Justice, established in 2024, as an independent Center housed within SCPS, and is a hub dedicated to advancing public safety and community resilience. CPSJ serves as a bridge between academic excellence and practical leadership, addressing the complex challenges of public safety through education, research, and collaboration. Building on UVA's historical partnership with the FBI National Academy, the success of the Master of Public Safety program, and the National Criminal Justice Command College, CPSJ seeks to inspire innovation, strengthen public trust, and shape the future of public safety leadership.

Professional Achievements

Over the past 13 years, Chief Bouthillette has delivered and developed training for over 70,000 law enforcement officers across all 50 states. His professional experiences extend beyond traditional law enforcement roles, including significant work as:

- Law Enforcement Accreditation Assessor for the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police
- Homeland Security Exercise Planner for Vermont's Division of Emergency Management and Homeland Security
- Program Chief for Vermont's Division of Licensing and Protection, Adult Protective Services Unit

Notable Recognition

Chief Bouthillette has received numerous prestigious awards, including:

- Purple Heart Award from the New Jersey State Law Enforcement Officers Association
- Valor Awards from the New Jersey State Chiefs of Police Association
- Valor Awards from the New Jersey State Policemen's Benevolent Association
- Special recognition certificates from the New Jersey Senate, General Assembly, and United States Congress

Personal Experience and Expertise

In 2000, Chief Bouthillette survived a critical incident involving a deadly force encounter, being shot twice at close range during a possible shot-fired call. This experience has profoundly informed his subsequent work and lectures on officer safety and survival, both nationally and internationally.

Professional Speaking Engagements

He has been a featured speaker for multiple prestigious organizations, including:

- Middle Atlantic-Great Lakes Organized Crime Law Enforcement Network (MAGLOCLLEN)
- U.S. Marshals Service
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- FBI National Academy Association

Educational Background

- Master's degree in human resources training and development, Seton Hall University
- Mini-Master's Certificate in Public Administration, Rutgers University
- Bachelor's degree in administration of justice, Thomas Edison State College
- Graduate, 236th Session of the FBI National Academy
- National Instructor Certification, IADLEST National Certification Program

Chief Bouthillette exemplifies exceptional leadership, continuous professional development, and an unwavering commitment to law enforcement safety and community service.