

Kenneth Dugger, BIO 2025

Chief Kenneth Dugger (Ret.) as a District Chief with the Broward County Sheriff's Office, and Law Enforcement Bureau Chief with the Monroe County Sheriff's Office has over 35 years of experience in South Florida county law enforcement, and 25 years of those in leadership positions. He is the owner of Kenneth Dugger Training, LLC., a leadership training, coaching, and mentoring organization whose focus is developing leadership excellence for law enforcement, corrections, and public organizations. His academic background includes an A. A. in Police Science and Administration, a B. A. in Criminology, and an M. Ed. in Vocational Education Administration & Supervision, and he holds a wide range of various instructor certifications, including being a John Maxwell Certified Team Member speaker trainer and coach, a Florida and North Carolina approved Criminal Justice Standards and Training instructor, a Dolan Consulting Group instructor, and a FEMA Center for Domestic Preparedness instructor.

Throughout his career, Chief Dugger has been honored to receive numerous performance recognitions, including Deputy of the Year and Instructional Excellence Awards, as well as Unit Achievement and Exceptional Service Awards. His background in law enforcement management and his proven track record developing leaders makes him the perfect trainer and mentor for those looking to significantly enhance their leadership skills. His passion for developing leaders and building strong, cohesive teams is evident in everything he does. By working with him you can learn how to harness the power of team leadership excellence and take your leadership abilities and your organization to new heights.

<https://www.johnmaxwellgroup.com/KennethDugger/About>

<https://www.kennethduggertraining.com>

