

Scott Guehne

Scott Guehne began his law enforcement career in 2004 with the Franklin County Sheriff's Office. He proudly served in many roles at the Sheriff's Office to include Detention Deputy, Patrol Deputy, FTO, and Detective Deputy. While serving in these roles, he advised on the Missouri Multi-Disciplinary Team Best Practices Advisory Board with several Missouri colleagues from across the state. In 2014, Scott obtained his Generalist Instructor certification through Missouri POST. In 2015, Scott moved from the Franklin County Sheriff's Office to Saint Charles City Police Department.

Scott has served with Saint Charles City Police Department from 2015 to the present. Scott has proudly served as an ID Officer (Crime Scene Officer) for the majority of his time at the department. In 2025, Scott was detached as a Full Time Instructor to the Easter Missouri Police Academy. While at the academy, Scott has instructed both law enforcement recruits during their basic academy as well current officers for continuing education. This includes him coming full circle and having the opportunity to instruct the Instructor Development Course at the academy.

This time culminates into over 20 years of continuous law enforcement experience in both rural and urban areas while fulfilling differing roles in each. Scott takes great pride in furthering the knowledge of current and future law enforcement and law enforcement-related members.

Prior to his career in law enforcement, Scott served in the US Army as a Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical NCO, as well as an assistant team leader of a Biological Reconnaissance (BIDS) team. Scott is a veteran of Operation Enduring Freedom. During his service, Scott instructed many members of all ranks both at the company and battalion level in the areas of NBC as well as maintaining numerous items of NBC equipment for the use by his assigned units.
